SENIOR NEWS!!

SENIORS: If you missed Jostens last week and your balance is paid in full you may check with Mrs. Stroud about getting your items. If you still need to pay on your account please have it paid in FULL by April 16th as Jostens will return that day from 11:30-1:00 for a follow-up delivery.

Also...CAP and GOWN pictures are scheduled for Tuesday, April 17th. You will need your cap and gown for these pictures so be sure to get everything paid for and pick up your items on the 16th. If you have questions about your senior supplies account please call Rhodes Graduation at 803-485-4503.

Senior Cap and Gown Picture Information

Cap and gown picture appointment sign-up will begin March 19th in room 225 with Mrs. Josie Price.

Pictures will be taken on April 17th during school following the senior class picture and the senior walk through GPS and GES.

Don't forget to hang and steam your gown before then! And don't forget to bring it to school for the class picture, even if you choose not to get an individual picture.

Genetic Scholars Summer Camp

The 2nd annual Junior Genetic Scholars Summer Camp will be held at the Greenwood Genetic Center July 9-12, 2018. This camp, for rising 10-12th grade students will provide didactic and laboratory instruction and well as fun, hands-on activities to explore the technologies and careers in the field of genetics. More information can be found here... <http://www.ggc.org/education/programs/students/summer-camp.html>

Are you Planning to Job Shadow for Crew?

In order for you to receive an excused absence for your job shadow date, you MUST:

- 1- Get a blue form from Mrs. Parsley in Guidance.
- 2- Return the completed blue form at least TWO days before your shadow date.
- 3- Get the purple folder.
- 4- Return the completed forms from your purple folder to Mrs. Parsley in Guidance.

If you do not complete these steps, you will be counted absent.

Thank you.

Congratulations to GHS student Lindsey Scott! She was a guest speaker for National FFA Day and received a Proclamation by State Senator Danny Verdin.

Lindsey is currently the President of the 4-H Teen Council. She helped organize the day's events held at the State House. Each county was involved in the event and given a State House tour. Lindsey was also the luncheon guest speaker at the Capital City Club. Other Gilbert High School students attending the event were Cameron Hallman, Wyatt Hallman, Emily Miller, and Sianna Smith.

We are so proud of this week's "Math Athletes"

Congratulations to the following students for being selected as a student of the week in their Mathematics class. Students were selected based on their Habits of Scholarship: Persistence, Time Management, Communication and Excellence. Keep up the great work!

Shelby Gentry
Haley Gunter
Brooke Sharpe
Eliza Hawfield
Brielle Burke
Lexi Freeman

Great things happening in the Arts this week!

So proud of my students and their hard work. Tuesday evening we celebrated their art pieces that are on display at the Columbia Museum of Art and then will be on display at Lexington Medical Center as part of The Art of Healing art competition. So proud of Ally Busbee for winning an honorable mention for her piece along with a $250 scholarship! Katelyn Terrell and Jarrett Smith also have pieces on display for the show. Please give them a congrats if you see them! Thank you, Allison Hendrix

All State Band

GHS Band students Kris Phelps and Owen Smith participated in the South Carolina All-State Band this Friday, March 16th. Proud of our GHS students!

Interested in taking AP Art next year?

Not sure what it is all about? Come down to room 314 March 20th right after school to see if it's a good fit for you! Hope to see you then!
